Thousands of Bright New Shoes,

A Chance for Easter Saving.

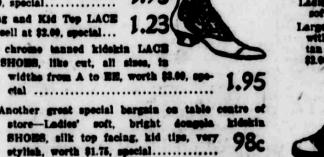

Almost half of the shoe chief's time is spent right in the factories where the best footwear is made. He knows shoemaking as only one can know a trade who has spent a lifetime in it. He's back from one of his numerous trips, and close upon his heels came several thousand shoes. These were bought at a sacrifice for various reasons. Some are parts of cancelled orders which left them as deadwood upon the makers' hands. But they're new spring styles made for city trade—and well made—depend upon that. This Sale Begins Saturday.
